

Do not change the No Call Law. We deserve to have a say in whether we want to talk to telemarketers. I do not want my evening interrupted with numerous phone calls from rude and pushy telemarketers. The fact that banks, businesses and organizations are allowed to force themselves upon us and that the people who should protect us sell out to the strong lobbyists is appalling. Your job is to protect us - I suggest you start doing that.